PROJECTS

- Zero-Day Cyberattack Detection using Deep Reinforcement Learning
Built and deployed an IEEE-backed AI system for zero-day cyberattack detection achieving 99 percent precision across 5 benchmark datasets using Deep Reinforcement Learning and PyTorch.
– Tools & technologies used: PyTorch, CUDA, FastAPI, Docker, NumPy, Pandas, Scikit-learn, Matplotlib
- Smart Posture Corrector
Designed and developed a smart system to monitor and analyze user posture in real time using sensors and microcontroller-based processing. The system detects incorrect sitting posture and provides instant feedback/alerts to help users correct their posture, reducing the risk of back and neck problems. Focused on accuracy, real-time monitoring, and practical health applications.
– Tools & technologies used: Python, Arduino, MPU6050 (accelerometer & gyroscope sensor), Arduino IDE
- Noise Denoiser
Developed a signal-processing project to remove unwanted noise from audio signals while preserving speech quality. Implemented noise reduction techniques to improve clarity and intelligibility of sound, focusing on efficient filtering and real-time or offline audio processing.
– Tools & technologies used: Python, NumPy, SciPy, Signal Processing techniques (Filtering, FFT), Audio datasets (WAV format)
